Protocol

Faculty can develop and propose new courses, make significant changes to current courses, or reactivate an old course. In order to accomplish these actions regarding a course, the Form for Courses must be completed and submitted to the Curriculum Committee for review and approval. Once the Curriculum Committee reviews and approves the course form, the Faculty Governing Council will discuss the course and vote for approval and adoption. The Dean will make the final teaching assignments for all courses. Once approved, the form goes to the Associate Dean for Administration/Registrar for further action.

The faculty submitting the form must include the course name, a catalog description of the course, and the rationale or purpose for the course.
